Supplemental Practice

To accompany my book...

My book, Calligraphy For Dummies, covers 6 alphabets: Italic, Blackletter, Roman, Uncial, Manuscript, and Copperplate. There are numerous trace and copy exercises throughout the book as well as an appendix of additional practice pages.

The pages in this supplement provide you with even more practice for the Italic alphabet. In addition to the practice pages, this supplement contains four pages of templates—one for spiral writing and three for the decorative capitals which I describe in Chapter 12 of my book.

Note: The correct pen to use for these supplemental practice sheets is the same as described in the corresponding chapters in the book.

Lincoln's Gettesburg Address

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. ¶ Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live.

It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. ¶ But in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate--we cannot consecrate--we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract.

The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us-- that from these honored dead we take increased devotion-- to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion-- that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain-- that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom--and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

bold letters for titles and to emphasize important words, but they are too heavy for simple text.
